Statement period	Total Due	Minimum Payment	Payment Due Date
From 06 AUG 2026 to 06 SEP 2026	0.00	0.00	26 Sep 2026

Please examine this statement immediately. Transaction details are now printed on both sides of the statement. If no discrepancy is reported within 14 days from the statement date, the account will be considered as correct.

Please settle this statement promptly. If the minimum payment is not received by the due date, a late payment charge will be charged to your card account. In addition, if payment is not made in full by the due date, finance charges will be levied on your card account. This will be calculated on a daily basis on the outstanding balance in this current statement and on all new purchase and cash transactions from the transaction date until the full payment is received.

Cardholder's Liability
If the card is lost or stolen or the PIN is disclosed, your liability for all card transactions (whether or not authorised by you) entered into before we receive notice of loss, theft or disclosure shall be limited to $100 provided that: (a) you notify us immediately after becoming aware that your card was lost or stolen or PIN disclosed; (b) you assist in the recovery of the card; (c) you furnish to us a statutory declaration in such form as we may specify or a police report and any other information we may require; and (d) we are satisfied that such loss, theft or disclosure was not due to your fraudulent act, negligence or default.

HSBC Singapore Fraud Team
We have a specialised team working 24x7 to protect our customers from potential financial fraud. In monitoring customers' card transactions, our team may contact you (from the number +65 6216 9016) for verification. We may also send you an SMS (from HSBC-SG) for transactions which appear suspicious. You can confirm if you had authorised the transaction simply by replying to the subsequent SMS.

Important Information on Credit Card Billing
This information is intended as a quick consumer guide only. For full details, please read the Credit Card Terms available at www.hsbc.com.sg/credit-cards.

Repayment grace period
- 20 days from statement period end date
- Credit card payments with standing instructions from other banks may be deducted 1 working day before the payment due date reflected on the credit card statement. Please ensure there are sufficient funds in your account for deduction.

Minimum payment amount
Your minimum payment amount will be:
- 100% of the monthly instalment amount for each of your cash instalment plans and spend instalment plans, if any; plus
- 100% of any interest, late fees, annual credit card fees and overlimit fees charged to your account*; plus
- 1% of your remaining outstanding balance (i.e. your total outstanding balance less the amounts set out under the previous two bullet points)*; plus
- the excess amount above your credit limit, if your account is overlimit, or $50 (in the currency of your account), whichever is greater. However, if your total outstanding balance is less than $50 (in the currency of your account), your minimum payment amount shall be your total outstanding balance.

*The total amount under the 2nd and 3rd bullet points is subject to a minimum of $50 (in the currency of your account).

Interest / Finance charge
Interest rate for purchases and cash advance is indicated on first page of your credit card statement. Minimum interest charge is $2.50.

If you do not pay the full outstanding balance shown on your statement by the 'Payment Due Date', you will incur interest (chargeable on a daily basis) for:
a) the amount of each transaction made from the date of transaction until receipt of full payment
b) the current balance specified in the statement less any partial payment, from the date of such partial payment to the date we receive full payment of the current balance

If you do not make the minimum payment, the interest will be added to your total balance and we'll charge interest on it. In addition, we may reduce your credit limit or impose restrictions on the account. No interest will be levied if full payment is received by the 'Payment Due Date' (including any accrued interest since the statement date).

Late charge
If the minimum payment is not posted in your account by due date, a late charge of $100 will be billed to your card account.

Overlimit fee
If the current balance on your card account exceeds your credit limit, an overlimit fee of $40 will be charged to your card account.

Cash advance charge
- Cash advance means any cash withdrawal in any currency, which includes quasi cash transactions such as: Betting and gaming related transactions / Purchase of foreign currency, cryptocurrency, travelers cheques and money orders / Wire transfers (including money transfers)
- Cash advance fee per transaction: 8% of amount withdrawn or $15, whichever is greater

Interest charges will also be levied on the amount from the date of the transaction till receipt of full payment. Interest rate for cash advance is indicated on first page of your credit card statement.

Foreign currency transactions
- Card transactions in US dollars (whether made overseas or online) shall be converted to the currency of your card account (not applicable for USD card).
- Card transactions in a foreign currency other than US dollars (whether made overseas or online) shall be converted into US dollars before being converted into the currency of your card account.
- All conversions shall be based on the wholesale foreign exchange rate determined by Visa, MasterCard or other relevant card scheme associations on the day which a transaction is received by us. We may agree with Visa, MasterCard or such other relevant card scheme association (as the case may be) to settle with them in the currency of the card account at a time and rate set by them.
- We charge an administrative fee for such card transactions at a rate of up to 2.25% of the transaction amount.
- All foreign currency and overseas transactions will also be subject to an additional charge of up to 1% by Visa, MasterCard or such other relevant card scheme association (as the case may be).
- All transactions are listed in your monthly statements in the currency of the transaction and the currency of the card account

Dynamic Currency Conversion
- Dynamic currency conversion (DCC) is a service offered at selected ATMs located overseas and used by selected merchants and service providers (whether located overseas or online). DCC converts a foreign currency transaction into the currency of a card account at the point of sale.
  a) Foreign currency transactions - If your foreign currency card transaction is converted to the currency of the card account via DCC, you acknowledge and agree that the process of conversion and the exchange rates applied will be determined by the relevant ATM operator, merchant or dynamic currency conversion service provider, as the case may be.
  b) Transactions in the currency of your card account - If you enter into a transaction in the currency of your card account with a merchant (including online merchants) that routes its payment processing outside Singapore (and in the case of US dollar cards, outside the United States and Singapore), you acknowledge and agree that:
     (i) this will be treated as a foreign currency transaction by Visa, MasterCard or such other relevant card scheme association (as the case may be); and
     (ii) that the process of converting the foreign currency transaction to the currency of your card account and the exchange rates applied will be determined by the merchant.
- All Dynamic Card Currency transactions described in above will be subject to an additional charge of 1% of the transaction amount, which is imposed by Visa, MasterCard or such other relevant card association (as the case may be).
